2 in 3 unchurched Americans say they are spiritual people
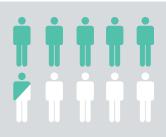

More than half say their faith is very important to their life

99% are aware of Christianity and 69% hold a favorable view of it

Yet … nearly half see no value in personally attending church